Ichabod:

Ichabod was born and raised in Massachusetts where he married Lydia MOTT. The couple had six children. After Lydia's death, Ichabod married Jane Richmond, having an additional twelve (some records suggest fourteen) children.

Note that the birth dates of the first three children have been converted to the Gregorian calendar dates reflecting the adoption of that calendar September 1752. Nonetheless, many individuals were slow to conform to the new calendar, and consequently some birthdates may be incorrectly recorded.

The family moved from Massachusetts to Dutchess County, New York in about 1744.

GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams

Ichabod's will states that his estate was to be divided equally amongst his children, except for Timothy, David and Thomas, who were to receive five shillings each, "and no more". Witnesses to the will were Daniel HAIGHT and Josiah BULL, Jnr.

Vincent Bowerman recollections:

"During the Revolution he remained attached to the King's party and as soon as peace was proclaimed he came to Canada in the year 1783 or '84, and married Sarah Vincent and settled on the North Shore of the little lake [East Lake, Lot 3], but he soon left it and moved over to the West Lake shore [South side, Lot 5] and there I was born on the 21st of 5th mo. 1791. My mother died when I was a day or two old. I was placed under the care of Daniel and Elizabeth Pettit where I remained until I was two years old, at which time my father went to Dutchess County and returned with his second wife, Maturah, a daughter of Josiah and Mehitabel Bull Married 4th mo. 4th 1793). Then he moved over on the north shore of West lake and took me with him and settled on Lot No. 1 first concession military tract containing about 230 acres of entire wild land bought of Major Henry Young for about $100, and built a log house 20 x 22 feet down by the spring south of the road where he lived until about the year 1806, when he built the frame two story house 30 x 40 feet, which stood until 1871 when taken down by the present owner William S. Hubbs and Abraham Saylor. He used a log barn for eight or nine years. He built a frame barn in the year 1800.

"He frequently let out three year old cattle to be broke and return them at the age of seven, and heifers the same way; on their return he sold them and bought land. He continued buying until he had got twelve hundred acres beside the homestead. He went to Quebec in the year 1810, with a raft of [30 or 40,00 oak] staves and was taken sick on his return home at Montreal with Typhoid fever, and died at Kingston [Aug. 28, 1810]. He was brought home and buried in the old Friends burying ground by C.G. Bowerman's [Bowerman Hill between Bloomfield and Wellington], leaving me at the age of nineteen to manage all the business."

1791: (date approximate) After death of Ichabod, the remaining family immigrated to Prince Edward County, where they settled around Bloomfield.

Jane:

* Some genealogies suggest a birthdate of 05 APR 1750...

Nine Partners Digest 1769-1798, Dutchess County, NY.

"A Testimony against Jane Bowerman worded as follows...

"From our Monthly Meeting... at the Oblong the 16th of the 2d month 1769.

"Whereas Jane Bowerman Daughter of Ichabod Bowerman of Beeckmans Precint haveing had education amongst friends... thereto giving way to a vain in chast and corrupt Disposition of mind suffered herself to be defiles which was manifested by her bringing forth Two Eligitamate or Bastard Twins in an unmarried state and also her Takeing an oath before a magistrate... we fo hereby testify against her Conduct therein and Disown her of being a member... intil she by true and sincear repentance..."

So it would appear that Jane had illegitimate twins before ger marriage to Sylvester RICHMOND.

Peter:

Said to have settled in Nova Scotia, A.C. BOWERMAN suggests that this may be false. Family stories suggest that "Aunt Phoebe" lived in Adolphustown, had no children, and after becoming ill, returned to Rome or Utica, New York where she subsequently died.

13. Abigail Richmond #189295, b. 16 May 1743 * in Stonington, Connecticut,¹ d. December 1819 in Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County, Ontario.^{1,8}

* A.C. BOWERMAN suggests a birthdate of 15 JUL 1743.

She married Daniel Cunningham #74498, in Connecticut, b. c. 1830? in Derry, Ireland, religion Society of Friends/Quaker.

Daniel:

Family moved from the United States to Hallowell Township in 1795.

from "Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"Daniel Cunningham had by his first wife, in Dutchess County, a son Charles, who afterward settled at Bloomfield and became the progenitor of the family, for which distinction is known as that of Cunninghams of the Island, and also a daughter Patience, who married Solomon Vermilyea, and moved to the Western States."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1906, The Cunningham Family; (pages 206 - 210)

"Many years ago a small boy, perhaps about twelve years old, was standing on the quay side of the Rifer Liffy, in Dublin, watching the dock hands and sailors load cargo on the lighters which were to convey it out to the vessels lying in mid-channel. One of the sailors picked up the boy and took him on the lighter, which put off for the ship's side. The little fellow, whose name was Daniel Cunningham, thought the trip a delight, and was in great glee when the man suggested his going on board.

"When discovered by some of the crew, Daniel was not unnaturally regarded by the captain as a stowaway; and stowaways were of frequent occurrence and had to be dealt with after a summary fashion. The captain compromised matters in a way that was quite common in those days. He decided that to pay the passage money he would sell the boy as an apprentice, when the ship reached New York. A Friend stood by and saw the boy as while the sale progressed. He conceived a liking for his handsome features and well-bred bearing, and felt great pity for his distressed condition. He bid, and fortunately for Daniel, bid the highest price.

"Daniel, at first, was placed among the other servants, but his superior nature and breeding could not but be recognized by the good Friend and his wife. They decided to take him from the kitchen and rear him with their own family, which consisted of an only daughter. When Daniel was received at the board of his master and friend, he began the romance of his life. Having received a good education, and being endowed with a clever brain and bright mind, he won, not the affections alone, but the confidence of his master, and thrived prosperously in business, being made a partner in the firm. If his progress on the well won esteem of his master was great, his hold on the affections of his master's daughter proved strong enough for her to become his wife; but she did not live for many years after her marriage, but died in giving birth to her only child, Charles.

"After the death of his young wife, Daniel Cunningham is again lost sight of, until it is found recorded in the history of the Richmond Family, that he married Abigail Richmond. It says: "Abigail Richmond, daughter of Cyrus Richmond, who, in the fourth generation, was a direct descendant from John Richmond, was born in Stonington, Conn., in 1743. She married Daniel Cunningham, who was born in Ireland; and she died in December 1819. They removed to Canada in 1795, and lived in Hallowell, Prince Edward County. He was one of the survivors of the massacre at Fort Henry."

[Fort William Henry was a British fort on Lake George, New York. Constructed in 1755 as a result of the French and Indian wars, The French, under General Montcalm took the fort during a siege in 1757, and he allowed the British, numbering just over 2300, to surrender and withdraw to Fort Edward. But the Indians had other ideas, and set upon the soldiers and their families. They brutally butchered as many as 180 or so men, women and children and sent many other naked into the forest to fend for themselves. Ed.]

"Daniel Cunningham, owing to the rules of the Friends' Society, went to Connecticut to marry his second wife. Some few years later, the Revolutionary War broke out, and Daniel was pressed to take up arms. But no matter what threat, what deprivations he suffered, he would not carry "the instruments of war." His aggressors might tie and lash the arms to his body, but he would not voluntarily carry them; and under no consideration could he be made to use them. Seeing that these endeavours were utterly hopeless, it was thought that by placing him on board a man-o'-war he could be compelled to participate actively in some form of warfare. But he does not seem, even then, to have violated his principals, for after sailing for some time along the American coast he was imprisoned in the gaol at Richmond, Virginia, where he died after a couple of years' confinement.

[Pioneer Life seems to confuse the timeline: if Daniel had indeed been forced to fight in the Revolutionary War, and perished in Richmond, how is it that he managed to move to Prince Edward County in 1795? More research needs to mad here to sort out this story. Ed.]

"By Abigail Richmond, his second wife, he had: William, who married Fanny White; their descendants appear in the table Annexed; Sarah, who married Benjamin Leavens; Mary, who married Joseph Barker and Martha, who married Amos Bull.

"The late Joshua Cunningham, born in Hallowell, January 28th, 1844, was a grandson of William Cunningham, the pioneer. He attended the Quaker School at Hallowell [West Lake Boarding School, east of Bloomfield, ed.], and on May 23rd 1866, married Saraphana (sic) Reynolds. He located in Trenton in 1872 and started the undertaking and livery business, carrying on one of the largest businesses of its kind in the Province; no better equipped could be found outside of the large cities. He stood high in the community, was an honorable business man and first-class citizen. Since his demise the business has been continued by his only son, Mr. J. Ross Cunningham."

1793: Landed at Picton with Spencer Party of settlers who included Samuel WILLIAMS, father of Platt WILLIAMS, William CUNNINGHAM Sr., Jonathan BOWERMAN and his two younger brothers Israel and Judah. Jonathan settled Lot 10, Con 2. Military Tract in Hallowell and established first a saw mill, then a grist mill in Lower Bloomfield, just north of the Danforth Road. This mill adjoined the property of Stephen FERGUSON's tannery, and became known as Morgan's Mill. It was destroyed by fire, and the dam removed. (date?)

Jonathan was also in partnership with John BULL, and built a mill just south of the road separating Concession 1 and 2, near the side road between lots 8 and 9. The actual location of the mill is speculative, but may be just south of the present Quaker Cemetery in Bloomfield at the location of the present Bloomfield Mill Pond.

Extracted from MAGRC GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams, Bowerman Genealogy

"Nursed and cared for by kind neighbours, Daniel and Elizabeth Pettit (who used a sap trough hewn from a bass-wood log for a cradle), Vincent was two years of age when his father brought home his step-mother, Maturah Bull, from the ancestral home, Dutchess County, N.Y. She proved a true mother and as her own children were born, Vincent became the eldest of a large family.

"Vincent went to school "when there was school" until he was able to work.

" I being the eldest, Father having no other help, I was put to it pretty young. I do not think I ploughed any until 13 or 14. Father built the new house in the year 1806 and I was 15 that summer. The winter before, I helped cut and saw logs ... Samuel Clapp ... and I cut and helped load about 100. Father drew them to ... Uncle Ichabod's sawmill... The next summer I drew stone to stone the cellar and burn lime and tend mason, I was 15 that spring. I do not think I went to school any except a little in the winter when I was 12 years old. After I was 16 Father generally kept a hired man and I worked with him most of the time. In the summer of 1809, I helped chop and clear 18 acres of new land and it was all sowed with wheat that Fall. After the sowing was done... they sent the men away to the River Trent and that was the beginning of the Lumber scrape... Father managed to get his spring crop in before the raft went away, then I was left home with a young man... to work the farm and take care of the hay and harvest... with another man to help us and I think we hired some more, we got the hay and wheat all in good season and in good condition, summer-fallowed and sowed I think about 20 acres with wheat."

"After the death of Thomas Bowerman in Kingston on August 28th 1810 while returning from his lumber venture in Quebec, Vincent shared fully the responsibility of the family with his step-mother. Thomas' brother, Gideon, also engaged in the lumber trade, came home late in the autumn and fell ill with fever which he contracted in Quebec. All winter long the epidemic lasted. Vincent lost an aunt, his sister Phoebe, and many died in the community. Vincent nursed the sick, even sleeping in the same room with his Uncle Gideon, who finally died at the home of his brother Stephen. Vincent survived and helped in the oversight of nine half-brothers and sisters and 1430 acres of land."

"Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"The family of Stephen moved to Battle Creek, Michigan. They were married at the "Big White House" on the same day (Friday, 18th September, 1818) on which were married William GARRETT (brother of Phoebe) and Patience Bull, and Townsend Garrett and Sally Bowerman. That was an occasion not to be overlooked; it was an early "triple-alliance," and demanded ratification by the assembled neighbourhood, in the collective capacity of and old-times charivari. That event was authentically stated by "the oldest inhabitant" never to have been surpassed for the extravagant invention of furious fun and frolic. The vestibule Pullmans in which the newly contracted parties began their wedding tours consisted of heavy farm waggons without springs, and furnished with large waggon chairs. When these had been taken apart and replaced in proper shape upon the ground - for the charivaring party had placed them astride the barn roof - they were free to pursue their journey over the corduroy roads leading to their various residences near Wellington, then the township of Ameliasburg. "Thomas (called "Big Tommy"), who lived for the greater part of his life on the town line between Hallowell and Hillier, near a country church, which still bears the name of "Bowerman's Church." Disowned JUL 1845.

Was one of the first seine fishermen on the Wellington Beach, and partnered with Justice FOX of Pulaski, New York who brought the first seine used in this fishery. FOX visited regularly for the September run of whitefish. The second seine, longer than the Fox-Blount seine, was owned by Samuel Cole; it was 80 rods in length, and was in operation from 1826 - 1828 and later. This type of seine fishing was a leading factor in the destruction of the valuable whitefish industry in Lake Ontario,

James Johnson of Athol partnered with Samuel Cole, and operated a curing ground on the Sandbanks for salting and barreling whitefish for the Rochester market.

Lived in Hallowell Township until about 1848, then moved west to Whitby, then to Wisconsin, United States of America.

Extract from "Descendants of Josiah Bull Jr. (1738 to 183) of Dutchess County, N.Y."
compiled by Mary Lynch Young

"There is quite a tale to tell about the large family of George and Phoebe. Seven of their ten children were already married when the family decided to leave Canada. Their eldest daughter, Delinda, was carrying her seventh child, and she and her husband decided not to accompany the rest. Son Amos was living in Michigan with his wife and child but later joined the family, once they were all settled. The two youngest daughters and youngest son, all single, were still at home with the parents.

"Early in the fall of 1869, five of their married children, two unmarried daughters and the unmarried youngest son, along with two of their neighbours, also single men, formed a wagon train of nine wagons, only one of which was pulled by horses - the remaining eight wagons were pulled by oxen. The parents were in one wagon; Stephen and his wife and five small children in one; Charles and four motherless children in one; Peter and wife and two children in theirs; daughter Martha and husband Rufus Burritt and four children in theirs; their recently widowed daughter, Elizabeth, drove her own wagon (while her two young sisters, Sophronia and Roxa, probably cared for her small son and daughter); Burton, the unmarried son, drove his; their young neighbour, Joe Carwell, drove his, and young William Jarmin drove the ninth wagon. The Burritts had the only horse-drawn wagon. (Two of their children did not go with them, Delinda Bull married Zachariah Doran and stayed in Ontario. Amos Nance Bull married Catherine Belles and settled in Kansas.)

"In all they were a party of 33 people. What a sight that must have been, nine covered wagons travelling fifteen miles from Meaford, on the Georgian Bay, to Owen Sound! As I understand it, the wagons and animals had to come by ferry.

The following letter describes the Bull's (sic) trip to the "States" is written by George and Phoebe's daughter, Sophronia, who was about 21 years old when she left Canada with her parents."

"I expect the old log house is gone and a modern structure in its place by now. Our house was on the Highway, 9 miles west of Meaford and 11 miles east of Owen Sound. I sure remember how it looked when we left there and started for the States (as everyone called it then).

"We went to Port Sarnia then went by boat up Lake Huron, through the straits and down Lake Michigan. We got on the boat at night and were on 3 days and 4 nights. It was a very rough trip. I was so sea sick I did not sit up to eat a single meal.

"Wish I could see you. Then I could tell you so much more about so many things that happened on that trek from Canada to the settlement in Canada Precinct in Nebraska."

"The party disembarked at Chicago, and formed their wagon train again, heading for Iowa. The wagon party had left Meaford in October of 1869, arriving in Linn County, Iowa, near Cedar Rapids on the 6th of November, when Martha gave birth to her fifth child in the covered wagon. The group stayed in Linn County until 1871.

"They found the free land gone in Iowa and in 1871 decided to go farther west, to Nebraska, where homesteads were being taken up. They stopped in Polk County, about ten miles south of the Platt River, and filed claims in what was to become known as "Canada Township", near where the town of Shelby later was settled. The railroad had yet to be built there.

"Actually, they were close to the Blue River, from which they hauled water in barrels for their household use and where they herded their horses and cattle to drink. Once a week they would take their washing to the Blue River. It wasn't until that fall they were able to start digging a well.

"A well drilling "outfit" was secured at Lincoln by George Bull to dig a well on his homestead. They were concerned when they were not able to find water at forty feet, but still kept drilling until water was finally reached at 112 feet! They were all so worried that they had suspended their plowing of the prairie sod to see if water could be reached at all. If not, they felt they would be unable to stay there. The water they did find was pure, and cold, and was in endless supply, so that everyone was happy and went back to plowing. The table land of Nebraska was certainly different from soil in Grey County, Ontario, at the edge of the Canadian woods.

"Charles H. Bull, son of George and Phoebe, made the trip to Linn County, Iowa with his four motherless children, Youngs A., Sarah E., Amos, and Abe. Charles' wife, Catherine McDonald, had died shortly before the Bull family left for Iowa in the fall of 1869. Charles married again in 1880 to Lavina Dunning Wait and they had two children, Garfield A., and Lillian Mary Bull.

"Charles had a number of setbacks before deciding to leave Nebraska for California in 1891. In 1874 there was a grasshopper plague which destroyed the crops; in the winter of 1880/81 there was a terrible blizzard which killed most of the cattle; in 1890 there was a severe depression followed by a drought."

"in the winter of 1895-6 Grandfather Williams, aided by Grandfather Bowerman, built a camp and boat-house on the Sand Bank shore midway between Wellington and West Point. This camp gave access to both Lake Ontario and West Lake and provided a retreat for Grandfather Williams where he indulged in his hobby of net fishing. It was greatly enjoyed also by his grandsons on holidays. The camp was only accessible (except at very low water) by a five mile row through the length of West Lake from the mouth of Trout Creek. This boat ride was in itself an adventure, especially when against the prevailing westerly winds."

Hugh:

1871: Charles SPROUL (sic), 13 lived with the family.

At death of daughter Emily in 1931, Hugh's birthplace is shown as "Scotland"...but at death of son Allan, he is shown to have been born in Glengarry County. In the 1851 census, his birthplace is shown as "Lower Canada"

"Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", 1904; suggests that the family came from Scotland and settled in Glengarry.

Hugh was NOT connected, as far as can be determined, with the Block H, Hallowell Township McDonald family. However, it's probably unwise to discount the idea that Hugh was born "in transit" from New Brunswick. This needs further research!

1851: Family lived in Hallowell Township. Note that Hugh is stated to have been born in "L Canada"

1861: He and wife Lydia are found, but names of children do not all correspond with census entries... that may be because many children assumed "middle" names later in life...

John:

The Annual Monitor for 1896, Quaker Published Memorials

"John T. Dorland was the son of John T. and Mary Ann Dorland, elders of West Lake Monthly Meeting, Canada. He was born in the village of Wellington, Ontario, on the 8th of the Third month, 1860. The youngest child of a family of seven, some of whom were grown up at the time of his birth, from his infancy he awakened a deep interest in those about him, and at an early age the impression was made upon his mother's heart that the Lord would call this one of her children to engage in His service as a Minister of the Gospel. The loving care of three grown-up sisters in his father's home had much to do with the moulding of his character, and his childhood became a time of seed-sowing that in after years brought forth an abundant increase.

"Amidst the beautiful surroundings and quiet of his native village, which is pleasantly situated upon the shores of Lake Ontario, he grew from childhood to youth, having at one time a strong desire to follow a literary career, but subsequently determining to engage in the study of law. Neither of these professions, however, were to be his life work. At a very tender age he manifested a deep interest in the Bible, and in the First-day school which he attended as a little child he was able, apparently with but little effort, to remember and repeat long passages of Scripture. But notwithstanding his many natural gifts, and the fact of his careful home training, he was soon made conscious of the need of having his heart opened to the Saviour's love., There were times when he felt he must surrender to these visitations of Divine love, and when he was under deep conviction; but unwillingness to trust fully, and a fear that if he were converted he would have to go abroad as a missionary, prevented his finding the rest and peace that come from God when the life is given up in whole-hearted surrender to Him. So the years passed until he was seventeen years of age, when the death of a beloved friend, his brother-in-law, Seburn Dorland, made a lasting impression upon him. This faithful servant of his Lord had come from the United States, hoping that the lake air would benefit his health; and his beautiful life and loving ministry were often afterwards spoken of by John Dorland as amongst the great blessings of his life. By the side of his open grave the silent prayer went up that his life might become such as his brother-in-law's had been - a prayer that has now had its gracious answer and remarkable fulfilment in the completed course of his own life, so full of the Divine blessing.

"Although these solemn calls and seasons of deep conviction had their marked influence, months passed before the light broke in and made John Dorland a new man in Christ Jesus. The desire to fit himself for the profession of his choice, the strong claims of his natural ambition to excel, and the day dreams of his boyhood, all had to be surrendered. There was before him no middle course. Christ must have all. Terrible though the ordeal seemed to all the pride of his buoyant young manhood, and sore the grief he felt to cause disappointment to some he loved, who shared the desire that he might follow the profession of his choice (in which doubtless he would have gained distinction), when the power of Divine grace brought the issues clearly home to his heart, his choice was made with a childlike trust, a singular steadfastness of purpose, and a single-hearted desire to be and to do all that God required of him. Humbly yielding to the divine will there came at once to his life much of the joyous and attractive power of grace, that made him such an honoured witness for his Lord. The work of his testimony began at once, and at Pickering College he was the means of influencing many of the students to become Christians, and "where," writes one of his friends of his boyhood, "he was admired by them for his straight-forward, upright Christian life."

"After leaving college John T. Dorland engaged in teaching for a time, but was soon called upon to relinquish this, as well as preparation for his chosen profession, and to go forth in the service of the Gospel. Great blessing attended even the very first of these journeys, and many conversations resulted. In the first neighbourhood visited, a meeting house where there had been no regular meeting was re-opened, and some time afterwards two further meetings were started in the same district. As the year 1881 was growing to a close, at the age of twenty-one, his gift to the ministry was acknowledged by his Monthly Meeting, and on the 18th of First month, 1882, he became a recorded minister.

"At this time an important change in his life took place. This was his marriage, on the 29th of Twelfth month, 1881, to Lavinia Hubbs, the daughter of William S. and Margaret Hubbs, of Bloomfield. Shortly before this John Dorland had accepted a business engagement with Elias Rogers, a Friend of Toronto, and in the newly -established meeting in that city, his ministry was continued and much blessed towards the building up and strengthening of the work that had been begun after the visit to Canada of Walter Morris. After residing for about a year in Toronto, John T. and Lavinia Dorland, with their infant daughter Margaret, removed to Brooklyn, U.S., which became their home for a couple of years. Here his time was fully taken up with his Gospel labours and visits to other Yearly Meetings, including his own in Canada. Visiting this in 1883 he met Isaac Sharp, Alfred Wright and other friends who were present from other Yearly Meetings. Already his character was distinguished by the exercise in large measure of the gracious influence of a controlled and spirt-filled life, which was the more manifest amidst the somewhat disturbed conditions that then existed in Canada; and already he had also begun to feel the burden of service for other lands. At this time an intimation came to him through one of the Friends attending the Yearly Meeting, of service that would be required of him over the sea, in which service he has since laid down his life.

"After leaving Brooklyn, where he had resided for a considerable time, he removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and found there, as elsewhere, that the work to which he was called fully occupied his time. Many were gathered to Christ through his faithful ministry, before the time came when it was made clear to him that he must visit England. Having obtained a minute for service here, he arrived in this country in time to attend in succession the Yearly Meetings of Dublin and London in the year 1888.

"For a couple of years John Dorland's family continued to reside in Wellington, Canada while he pursued his labours, visiting meetings, adult schools &c., throughout this country. A deepened interest in our own meetings, especially amongst our younger members, was the result of this labour that became apparent almost everywhere. To may also his ministry was a call to surrender to Christ, while to others it was an awakening to a more consecrated service. In the year 1889 his wife joined him for a short time in these labours, and he returned with her on a visit to his family in Canada.

"During this visit he attended Canada Yearly Meeting, in which he was appointed Clerk. Returning to England, he continued his labours under his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting, until early in the year 1890, when a trip he had long desired to make to the East was undertaken in company with J. Allen Baker. The journey extended to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Constantinople and Athens, occupying several months, and proving one of the deepest interest to John Dorland. Not long after his return, he felt it right to remove his family from Canada to England, and for this purpose he again visited Canada at its next Yearly Meeting, which proved to be a larger meeting than had gathered for some years. It was no small trial for John Dorland to leave his aged parents and his home on this occasion, and it proved the last time he was to see the face of his father, as his decease had taken place before John Dorland's next return to Canada. But his call to England being clear, it was ever and added comfort to him in the prosecution of his work to know how freely and fully his parents had given him up for it, and how prayerfully they followed him in it.

"In a letter from Wellington, just before he sailed with his family, he wrote - "They want me to come to Cleveland, but I can see nothing but England!... This is home, and only His call could take me from it. My dear parents are so sweet about our going... For all I dread to leave, there is such a joy in the prospect of taking up my work in England. I trust God is preparing me for it in a larger measure also. Oh for His power in saving and sanctifying."

"It was the autumn of the year 1890 that John Dorland brought his family to England, settling at "Densbrook", Willesden Junction, London, which continued to be his permanent home until the time of his decease. The range of his work was now extended, taking in a largely increased number of engagements in connection with adult schools and mission centres, while at the same time continuing the specific work for which he had obtained his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting. When he had fully completed what he felt to be required of him under this minute, for a couple of years he employed part of his time under a business engagement with Joseph Baker & Sons of London. This work was not allowed to interfere with his continuing his gospel labours, for which he was free to absent himself at any time; and series of meetings, conventions, addresses, etc., continued to largely occupy him. It was under this engagement that he went to Chicago in the year 1893, remaining for several months during the time of the Exhibition. While thus engaged in business, he there found acceptable service with the Chicago Friends' Meeting, as expressed by a very cordial minute of that Meeting. During this visit to America he also had the opportunity of visiting New York Yearly Meeting.

"Upon returning from England his whole time was again devoted to religious and philanthropic work. When the Friends' First-day School Association was re-organized, and it became necessary to have a Secretary able to devote considerable time to the work, attending Annual Meetings, Conferences, etc., John T. Dorland accepted this post. During the last year and a quarter of his life he was also Editor of "One and All," the magazine of the Association, being also a frequent contributor to the "Friend," and for a considerable time responsible for the issue of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union Monthly Circular; and being actively engaged in promoting the establishment of branches and strengthening the work of that Union, his time was very closely occupied, and much of it necessarily spent away from home.

"In every department his work was characterized by forcible clearness, sound judgement, and rich spiritual power; and his life in a remarkable manner exemplified the effective influence of the large-hearted Christian, faithful to his convictions as a thorough Friend. He felt that we could put no limitations upon the work and operation of the Holy Spirit, and "magnified his office," or, as expressed in the revised version, like Paul, he "glorified his ministry."

"About seven months before his death he took an extended journey to the East on religious service, in company with his wife and Lucy E. and Mary E. Mouncey. This trip but deepened. his interest in Egypt, Palestine, and the countries he had visited before, and his sympathies were greatly increased and feelings aroused on behalf of the Armenians. Many interesting addresses were given by him on the Eastern lands.

"Few who ever came in contact with John Dorland but were impressed with his only too rare combination of profound earnestness with a bright, joyous, and hopeful Christian character. The news of his death after a few days' illness, passed as a great shock, not only throughout this country, but wherever he had been known.

"John T. Dorland left a widow and four children - two sons and two daughters - one of the latter being born in England. In the Eighth month last Lavinia H. Dorland and her family returned to Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

"It was from attendance at the last and most encouraging Annual Meeting of the Friends' First-day School Association, held at Bristol, that John T. Dorland returned to London with a slight cold; and attending the Quarterly Meeting at Devonshire House, took a further chill. Seeming to be partially recovered he proceeded to Manchester to attend some meetings of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union and the Byrom Street Adult School. Although more ill than he appeared, he felt that he must attend the first of these - the F.C.F.U. Meeting, into which the whole of his concern seemed to centre. The meeting was a time of very manifest blessing and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. John Dorland spoke with great power, faithfully delivering the message committed to him; and the address given in that last meeting will long be remembered by many besides those who were privileged to be present. Within an hour after its conclusion he was prostrated in much pain and suffering of the late William Brockbank, "Brockhurst," Didsbury, near Manchester, and was never able to rise again. He was joined by his wife, and a day or two later by J. Allen Baker, from London. The most skilful physicians and trained nurses were in attendance night and day, and every possible means that generous hospitality and tender solicitude could provide were freely employed to save his life, but all in vain. One week from the time of his last meeting, as the sun of a new day was breaking in through the trees in front of the mansion where he lay, he peacefully passed to his eternal rest. His wish, expressed some years before, that he might die in harness was granted; and in the hours of consciousness his expressions of peace and joy in the prospect of being with his Lord were very precious to those who heard them. No dying words were needed to witness the reality and blessedness of a spirit-filled life such as his; and the self-denial and singular devotion which characterised its entire course will long remain a monument and testimony to the praise of Him who has now called His faithful servant from the service of earth to the higher service of Heaven."

Ira:

1881: Lived with wife Roxy and Cornelia A. CHADSEY, 12, born USA. What relationship was she to the family?

From the Wellington Times, 25 October 2017; "Looking Back", by Marjorie Wiltse.

"It was an era when mysticism blended easily with religion. So it was that Ira Chadsey prepared carefully for the afterlife - in which he believed that he would return to earth as a white horse. He erected mounds of stones - cairns - around his farm as unmistakable identifying markers to his reincarnated self.

"By the time he was 77 his wife, Roxey, had been dead for seven years. The couple had produced no children. So, on one summer's day in 1905, Chadsey walked down the lane to the sugar shack eating an orange. Arriving at the small shed, he set it ablaze and watched it grow. He then shot himself in a manner so that he fell back into the flames. When the fire was extinguished, nothing remained but the barrel of a gun. And a trail of orange peels.

"The cairns remain on the farm - now known as By Chadsey's Cairns Winery. The only sightings of a white horse have been on the labels of the wine produced from the vines on Ira Chadsey's farm.

"Ira Chadsey's life and that of the woman he loved is the subject of The Chadsey Play produced by Written on the Water Theatre. It previewed in the workshop at By Chadsey's Cairns Winery in the fall of 2016."

From "A Cyclopedia of Canadian Biography", 1886, George Rose

"Henry William Branscombe, Picton, Ontario, was born at Hallowell, County of Prince Edward in 1837. His father, Arthur Branscombe, was the grandson of a British officer, who served in the war of the American revolution, and after the treaty of 1783, removed to Grand Lake, Queen's County, New Brunswick, at which place a large number of the same name still reside. Early in the present century, the grandfather and father of Mr. Branscombe removed to Hallowell, Upper Canada, and settled near what is now the village of Bloomfield.

"Arthur Branscombe married Catherine Burlingham, daughter of a U.E. loyalist, who came from Dutchess County, N.Y., at the close of the war. The Burlingham's were amongst the most successful of the old settlers of Prince Edward county, and constitute, today, one of the most extensive and respectable families in that county.

"Henry W. Branscombe was educated in his native township, and at an early age commenced the study and practice of dentistry, in which profession he has risen to the foremost rank. in 1862 he left his native town for New York city, where he practised his profession with marked success for five years. He then returned to Picton, and after a sojourn of a few years, removed to Chicago, where he remained until 1879, when he returned to Canada and permanently settled in Picton. His careful steady and industrious pursuit of knowledge, together with the deep interest he has always taken in dentistry, secured for him an honourable recognition by his professional brethren, in his election to the position of secretary to the Dental Association for Ontario. After his removal to Picton, he combined the business of chemist and druggist with that of dentistry, and has for several years successfully conducted both branches.

"In local enterprise Mr. Branscombe has been found to give a helping hand. For five consecutive years he has occupied a seat at the council board, where he has made his influence felt to a marked degree. He has for years been a director of the County Agricultural Society, and is also a treasurer of the Bay of Quinte Fire Insurance Company. He is an active member of the Methodist church, and enthusiastic worker for the cause of temperance.

"Henry W. married in 1866, Sara Elizabeth Allison , daughter of the late Rev. Cyrus Allison, whose name is familiar amongst the temperance workers who under the appellation of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have done so much of late years to arouse public opinion upon this important question".

Obituary: An Appreciation of Elma Noxon Mastin

(By Charlotte Talcott-Cox), (publication name/date unknown, 1932)

"The passing of Elma A. Mastin, beloved wife of S.E. Mastin, touched the hearts of many who had known her from her earliest years to the hour of her departure from the island of Time, to the land of Eternity.

"Elma Noxon was born of Quaker parentage. Her mother was Mary J. Thomas. her father, Reuben Noxon. was a grandson of James Noxon, the first Quaker minister in Prince Edward County - if not the first in Canada. Mrs. Mastin was the grand-daughter of Jonathan Noxon and Jemima Way. Jonathan Noxon was a prominent Quaker minister who lived and died in Bloomfield.

"Mrs. Mastin, in every relation of life - wife, mother, friend and neighbour, expressed in her daily life the chief characteristics of Christian womanhood.

"In her quiet, kindly disposition lay the "Consecration" that was not wrapped in a holy web of doctrine, but in the joyful, smiling experiences of loving and living, which sprung forth fruit during her whole life. She found on earth her real heaven, and she lived in it as few knew how to live, free from envy and uncharitableness.

"She went forth upon her homeward journey leaving messages of love and kind words. She died in the autumn of life, with clustering fruits at the end of the harvest.

"We shall miss her in our community life, our Institute and Club, where her personal influence and assistance were valued.

"We deeply sympathise with the bereaved husband and family who sorrow."

"Out and beyond in the shining way."
